RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On September 28, 2021, Janis Rockey (“Petitioner”) filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered from a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of receiving an influenza (“flu”) vaccination on September 21, 2020. Pet. at 1, ECF No. 1. Petitioner further alleges that she suffered the residual effects of her injury for more than six months. Id. at 6–7. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 1, 2023, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1,

If, upon review, I agree that the identified material fits within this definition, I will redact such material from public access.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2018).

ECF No. 18. Specifically, Respondent indicated that Petitioner has “satisfied the criteria set forth in the Vaccine Injury Table and Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation for a SIRVA.” Id. at 3. Respondent further agrees that “there is not preponderant evidence that something other than the flu vaccine was the cause” of Petitioner’s left-sided SIRVA. Id.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
